

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact

Jessica Turner Lovell Communications Phone: 615-297-7766 Email: jessica@lovell.com

George Mabry Joins CAPSTAR Bank (In Organization)

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – (March 25, 2008) – George B. Mabry, Jr. has joined CAPSTAR Bank (In Organization) to manage a team of experienced private bankers as Vice President-Private Banking. Mabry was most recently the vice-president of the private client group at U.S. Bank.

"I am looking forward to leading CAPSTAR into its next phase of development in private banking," Mabry said. "Working with an exciting start-up focused on serving the interests of successful local residents will bring great satisfaction to a Nashville native like me."

He will be responsible managing relationships and consulting with private banking clients who manage a sizeable personal net worth.

"George has a strong track record of growing the client base of his organization's private banking clientele," said Claire Tucker, bank president and chief executive officer. "His professional and community commitments will help CAPSTAR serve our clients as we continue to grow in Nashville."

Before Mabry served in his current role at U.S. Bank, he gained experience as a financial consultant at Smith Barney and J.C. Bradford/Paine Webber. Mabry currently serves on the board of directors of the March of Dimes and St. George's Kindergarten, where he is also the chair of the board.

CAPSTAR BANK (In Organization) raised a record $88 million in start-up capital, which is believed to make it the highest capitalized start-up bank in Tennessee history. CAPSTAR will focus on the areas of middle market commercial, commercial and residential real estate and private banking. The bank's first branch will be located on the ninth floor of 201 Fourth Avenue North where the headquarters of CAPSTAR are currently located. Additional branch locations are being planned and will be announced at a later date. For more information about CAPSTAR, please visit www.CAPSTARBank.com.