

For more information, contact
Beth Alexander (615) 732-6424

For immediate release

CapStar Adds Key Sales and Financial Center Personnel

Aggressive hiring continues as sales, retail strength builds

NASHVILLE, TN– April 4, 2013. CapStar President and Chief Executive Officer Claire W. Tucker announced the addition of business development officers in two divisions, seven new retail and support staff and two promotions, all of which will continue to strengthen the bank's retail presence across middle Tennessee.

Bruce Von Almen has joined CapStar as Vice President, Treasury Management Sales, supporting the commercial line of business. A graduate of Tennessee Technological University with a B.S. in Business Administration, Von Almen began his career with the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Nashville Branch. For the last nine years, he has been a Treasury Management Officer for First Horizon National Corp (First Tennessee Bank). He is a member and past president of the Downtown Nashville Lions Club.

Jim Ward has been appointed Senior Account Executive for CapStar Commercial Finance team. Ward will continue to be based in Atlanta, Ga., where he has more than 30 years of experience in the commercial finance middle market with such institutions as Orix Financial Services, Wells Fargo Equipment Finance, US Bancorp and Southern Community Bank. Ward will have a business development role primarily in the Georgia market, as well as Florida, Mississippi and Alabama, expanding CapStar's current representation in Charlotte, NC and Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo.

Kim Yeager joins CapStar as Executive Assistant to the Chief Development Officer and Chief Credit Officer. Yeager was an operations administrative assistant at Amazon.com and previously spent two years with Cracker Barrel as a restaurant operations coordinator. Yeager holds a B.S. in Arts Administration with a concentration in dance from Butler University in Indianapolis, Ind. She began her career with the Nashville Ballet, where she was a full-time member of the company. She has also been guest artist with the Gregory Hancock Dance Theater in Indiana and spent a year as an apprentice with the Alabama Ballet.

* * * more * * *

PAGE TWO: CapStar Adds Sales and Financial Center Personnel

Leading the retail additions are two new Financial Center Managers. Tammi Narehood has been appointed Vice President, Financial Center Manager for the Green Hills office. Narehood comes to CapStar from SunTrust where she had been branch manager for the downtown office. Her sales teams consistently performed in the top 10 percent of branches. Recognized as a member of the SunTrust Chairman's Team since 2011, Narehood brings more than a decade of bank management to her new position. She studied at Lenoir-Rhyne University in Hickory, NC.

Morgan Butler, Vice President, will manage CapStar's Hendersonville office. A graduate of the Southeastern School of Banking with a B.A. in Political Science from the University of the South, Butler comes from Renasant Bank where he was a Business Development Officer. He is a past president of the Madison/Goodlettsville Rotary and serves on the board of the Nashville Old Timers Baseball Association.

Joining Narehood in Green Hills is Kimberly Wingrove, formerly a Licensed Personal Banker IV at SunTrust, where she coordinated business development with the Private Wealth Management department. She was also a member of the Branch Banking Advisory Board and an orientation host and on-the-job trainer for new hires and promotions. She holds Series 6, 63 and Life licenses and writes fixed annuity and wealth transfer contracts.

Meridith Hobbs, who has been with CapStar since prior to its opening in July, 2008, has accepted a new role as Team Leader for the Customer Service Representatives who handle commercial and private client relationships. She will provide oversight for the coordination of CSR training, loan closings, customer service and scheduling of all CSR activities. Hobbs will continue to support Relationship Managers in the commercial, private banking and correspondent banking areas, as needed. She has a Masters of Arts degree from Western Kentucky University.

Pam Price, who has been an FSR with CapStar since 2008, has been promoted to Client Services Representative with the commercial clients in the C&I and HealthCare Groups. Price earned an accounting degree from Eastern Kentucky University with a minor in Economics. She has been an active volunteer on the board of directors for the Fannie Battle Day Home for Children, among many other volunteer activities.

Nate Collier has been appointed Financial Services Representative at CapStar's Brentwood office. He was a lead FSR and teller trainer at the Franklin branch of SunTrust, and previously spent five years as the Director of Youth Ministry at First Presbyterian Church in Franklin, Tenn. He earned both a B.S. in Business Administration and a Master of Arts degree in Religion from Trevecca Nazarene University.

* * * more * * *

PAGE THREE: CapStar Adds Sales and Financial Center Personnel

Michelle Hiam comes to CapStar as a Financial Services Representative in the Hendersonville Financial Center, bringing more than 10 years of banking experience in consumer and commercial lending. She was most recently a commercial lending assistant at Renasant Bank.

Rebecca Wells joins CapStar as a Financial Services Representative in the Gallatin Financial Center. She is a graduate of Tennessee Technological University with a B.S. in Sociology and was a Customer Care Representative with SunTrust's call center. Most recently, she was a member of the relief staff at Renasant Bank.

CapStar Bank opened on July 14, 2008. As of the end of December, 2012, its total assets exceeded $1 billion. CapStar's headquarters are in downtown Nashville at 201 Fourth Avenue, Suite 900, with branches at 5500 Maryland Way in Brentwood; 2321 Crestmoor Road in Green Hills; 101 Springhouse Court, Hendersonville; and 885 Greenlea Blvd, Gallatin. For more information about CapStar Bank, please visit www.CapStarBank.com.

#

CapStar Bank: We're listening.