

For more information, contact
Beth Alexander (615) 732-6424

For immediate release

CapStar Bank Reorganizes Senior Management to Accommodate Growth

Hogan moves from consulting role to Chief Operating Officer, Evans to become Chief Information Officer

NASHVILLE, TN– December 11, 2012. The board of directors of CapStar Bank has approved a reorganization of the senior management team at CapStar, as part of its ongoing strategic directive toward sound, profitable growth. These appointments will consolidate revenue producing units with the operating division with an increased focus on customer sales and service, product development and information technology. President and Chief Executive Officer Claire W. Tucker announced that Dan W. Hogan has been appointed Chief Operating Officer and Tipton H. Evans has been appointed Chief Information Officer. Tucker said, “CapStar is maximizing the strengths of two talented individuals— Dan, who will bring a new perspective to our goals of excellent customer service and enhancing shareholder value, and Tip, who has a deep understanding of the DNA of CapStar. Deploying Dan and Tip in these new avenues of leadership will allow me to focus on strategic considerations as we move toward the billion-dollar assets mark.”

Dan W. Hogan, who began working with CapStar as a project consultant in July, will join the senior management team as Chief Operating Officer. Hogan had a 19-year career at National Commerce Financial Corporation, which was acquired by SunTrust in 2004. While at National Commerce, Hogan had increasing responsibility in Memphis before relocating to Knoxville to assume the role of President in that market. That ten-year assignment was followed by relocation to Atlanta where Hogan led the bank’s Georgia expansion as regional president, an appointment that resulted in 52 new bank locations over three years.

Hogan was recruited to Fifth Third in 2005 as its President and CEO six months after Fifth Third completed a merger with Franklin Financial Corporation. In 2007, Hogan assumed additional responsibilities as Regional President for Kentucky, Tennessee and Georgia.

* * * more * * *

PAGE TWO: CapStar Bank Reorganizes Senior Management to Accommodate Growth

A graduate of what is now the Walton School of Business at the University of Arkansas, Hogan graduated from the Graduate School of Banking at Louisiana State University. Hogan is a graduate of Leadership Nashville and Leadership Knoxville. He is also serving his second term as Nashville Branch Director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta.

“The opportunity to join the CapStar team was one I could not pass up,” said Hogan. “I am very impressed with the accomplishments of the bank and the talent in place at the company. Helping CapStar capitalize on new opportunities as well as hiring additional talent to help the bank execute on the new growth initiatives will be an exciting challenge.”

Tip Evans, one of the first four employees hired in 2007 to design and develop a bank that would “provide flexible financial solutions,” will remain on the senior management team as Chief Information Officer. During Evans’s tenure, CapStar installed the latest information technology for deposit relationships and loan operations, opened three branches in Davidson and Williamson Counties, and successfully merged information systems with the former American Security Bank & Trust in Sumner County. He has been a leader in several industry associations including the Tennessee Automated Clearing House Association, the National Automated Clearing House Association; Internet, Inc. and the Electronic Check Council. Evans is a graduate of the University of Alabama’s Culverhouse School of Business and the American Bankers Association’s Stonier Graduate School of Banking. He has an accomplished banking background with an emphasis in bank payment systems.

CapStar Bank opened on July 14, 2008. As of the end of September, 2012, its total assets were valued at $931 million. CapStar’s headquarters are in downtown Nashville at 201 Fourth Avenue, Suite 900, with branches at 5500 Maryland Way in Brentwood; 2321 Crestmoor Road in Green Hills; 101 Springhouse Court, Hendersonville; and 885 Greenlea Blvd, Gallatin. For more information about CapStar Bank, please visit www.CapStarBank.com.

#

CapStar Bank: We’re listening.