Banking Veterans added to CapStar Healthcare Group

Doug Lewis and Shannon LeRoy make the move from Physicians Capital

NASHVILLE, TN– October 23, 2013. CapStar President and Chief Executive Officer Claire W. Tucker announced the addition of Douglas B. Lewis and D. Shannon LeRoy as Senior Vice-Presidents in CapStar’s Healthcare Banking Group. This doubles the size of that team, founded earlier this year with Tim Fouts and Clif Tant, who both joined CapStar prior to its opening in July, 2008. Lewis and LeRoy will provide commercial lending solutions to ambulatory surgery centers, dialysis centers, small hospitals and their physician partners and will report to team leader Fouts.

Lewis is a seasoned health care executive who most recently co-founded and served as chief development officer of Physicians Capital. A former HCA hospital administrator and vice president of development, he completed more than 100 development projects there. He was a founder and chief development officer of Psychiatric Solutions and a founder and vice-president of development and acquisitions of OrNda HealthCorp. Lewis holds a B.A. and a J.D. from the University of Mississippi and an MHA from Virginia Commonwealth University. He is a Fellow in the American College of Health Care Executives and a member of the Mississippi Bar Association.

LeRoy’s extensive experience in financial services includes three successful start-up operations. He most recently co-founded and served as president and CEO of Physicians Capital prior to the sale of that company. LeRoy began his professional career in commercial banking and helped start and manage two successful banking operations for Dominion Bankshares and First Union Corporation with a significant focus on the health care business. Before forming Physicians Capital, LeRoy was active for many years in a number of private equity and venture capital investments with Rodgers Capital. He holds a B.A. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

“Consistent with our plan as well as with the growth of the Nashville healthcare market, the doubling of CapStar’s Healthcare Banking Group is evidence of the strength of this sector and our commitment to serving it with excellence,” Tucker said.

Fouts added, “An extensive search for the right skills, experience and cultural fit pointed us to Doug and Shannon. We are fortunate to expand our geographic reach as well with their expertise.”

CapStar Bank opened in July, 2008. As of the end of June, 2013, its total assets exceeded $1 billion. CapStar’s headquarters are in downtown Nashville at 201 Fourth Avenue, Suite 900, with branches at 5500 Maryland Way in Brentwood; 2321 Crestmoor Road in Green Hills; 101 Springhouse Court, Hendersonville; and 885 Greenlea Blvd, Gallatin.
