

For more information, contact Beth Alexander, 615-732-6424

For immediate release

CapStar Bank Welcomes Sumner County Advisory Board

CapStar's merger with American Security Bank & Trust brings new talent, broadens CapStar's reach in the Sumner County community

NASHVILLE, TN— December 11, 2012. CapStar Bank president and CEO Claire W. Tucker has announced founding members of CapStar's newly established Sumner County Advisory Board, which will operate under the leadership of L.A. Green, president of Green-Little Corporation in Gallatin, TN.

Respected business people in the Gallatin and Hendersonville communities have been recruited to serve on the advisory board for CapStar's presence in Sumner County. Jay Roney, Senior Vice President of Commercial Lending, said, "These board members will be able to help CapStar identify opportunities in the local market that will aid in the economic development of Sumner County." The board will meet monthly in the Hendersonville branch at 101 Springhouse Court.

The new advisory board includes:

Roger Batey, president of Batey Construction and Realty, has been active in the Hendersonville area for more than 40 years. He has a degree in business from the University of Tennessee.

Carl Davis is the founder and managing partner of Carl A. Davis & Company, CPAs, a full-service firm providing audit, tax and financial advisory services with offices in Hendersonville and Portland, TN. His earlier experiences include eight years with Deloitte where he served on the audit staff, and later as National Policy Coordinator, as well as private industry financial and operational management roles in manufacturing and hospitality. He is a 1985 graduate of Western Kentucky University with a B.A. in Accounting. His professional and civic involvement includes the Tennessee Society of CPAs and the Sertoma Club, and board positions at TRAC, Inc. and the Bluegrass Country Club, which he served as president from 2009-2011. He is a member of College Heights Baptist Church.

* * * more * * *

PAGE TWO: CapStar Bank Welcomes Sumner County Advisory Board

Gwen Dowland is a graduate of the University of Tennessee and an active member of the Sumner County real estate community. The Wall Street Journal ranked her the Number 22 Realtor in the country in 2008, and she is a member of the Re/Max Circle of Legends, an international recognition society with fewer than 200 members. Her numerous awards attest to the fact that she has been a top producing real estate agent in Sumner County for more than 20 years. She is a member of the board of directors of Sumner Academy and has chaired its annual fundraiser, and has been active with the United Way, WDCN's Action Auction, the United Way, the March of Dimes, Vanderbilt University's Peabody Roundtable, Gallatin Girls' Cotillion Club and CASA. She serves on the Dyer County Library Board, is an active member of the First United Methodist Church.

Earl Fischer retired from Atmos Energy Corporation after nearly 45 years of service. His community service is extensive, beginning with his term as chairman of the board for the Board of Regents of Western Kentucky University and served on the board for 13 years. He is also the past board chair of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce; the Kentucky Governor's Task Force of Business and Industry on Post-Secondary Education; the Bowling Green/Warren County Chamber of Commerce; and is past president of the Industrial Development Foundation in Bowling Green, KY. He serves on the board of trustees of his alma mater Brescia University, is board chair of the Gallatin Economic Development Agency and serves as president of the Fairvue Plantation Homeowners Association.

Mike Gaughan is broker/owner of Re/Max Choice Properties, a real estate firm with locations in Hendersonville and Gallatin. He serves on the board of the Sumner County YMCA, Hendersonville Medical Center, Forward Sumner and The Jason Foundation. He has provided leadership to the Hendersonville Rotary club, the Hendersonville and Gallatin Chambers of Commerce and the Sumner Association of Realtors, and is a member of the First United Methodist Church. He is a graduate of Hendersonville High School and the University of Memphis.

L.A. Green was an incorporator and director for American Security Bank, which merged with CapStar in July, 2012. A graduate of the University of Tennessee, L.A. is general manager of Green & Little, a real estate investment company, and president of Green-Little Corporation, a real estate management company. He is a director of the Gallatin Economic Development Agency, Forward Sumner and Sumner county Joint Economic and Community Development Board. He has also been active in civic and social organizations, including Lions Club, Gallatin Chamber of Commerce and the Bluegrass Yacht and Country Club and is a member of First United Methodist Church of Gallatin, Tennessee.

* * * more * * *

PAGE THREE: CapStar Bank Welcomes Sumner County Advisory Board

Phil Kyle owns a Carrier Truck Refrigeration dealership in Nashville and is a partner in Center Hill Marina & Yacht Club. A graduate of Georgia State University with a B.S. in Business Administration, he earned his degree while working for International Harvester. He purchased the International truck dealership in Nashville in 1984 and sold the dealership in 2006. He has served on the board of directors of Bluegrass Country Club, the Hendersonville Rotary Club, the Tennessee Trucking Association and the Tennessee Marina Association, which he also served as president. He and his family moved to Hendersonville in 1995.

Dr. Sid King is managing partner for the Sumner Medical Group in Gallatin, which was organized in 1996 when he led the merger of an internal medicine practice and a family practice group. In addition to his management work, he practices internal medicine. He serves as medical director and chairman of the board for the Tri-County Independent Practice Association and has served on the advisory boards of Health 123, HealthNet, HealthSpring and Universal Care of Tennessee. He served on the Sumner Regional Health System board and its executive committee from 1994-2004.

Len Little, also a partner at Green & Little, served as an advisory director of First Tennessee Bank and as director of First Tennessee Bank of Sumner County for more than 25 years. He has been on the boards of the United Way of Middle Tennessee and the Bluegrass Yacht and Country Club. He serves on the board of the United Methodist Foundation, Tennessee Conference, and has been Finance Chairman for the First United Methodist Church in Gallatin for more than ten years. He has been active in numerous civic and social organizations, including the United Way, the Lions Club and the Gallatin Chamber of Commerce.

Scott Ramsey, President and CEO of the Nashville Sports Council, is a graduate of Old Dominion University, where he attended on a golf scholarship. Ramsey has more than 25 years of experience in sports marketing and currently has responsibility for the operations of the Music City Bowl, as well as the Sports Council. During his tenure with the two organizations, they have combined to deliver more than $430 million in economic impact, hundreds of hours of national television coverage and have recruited and staged more than 160 sporting events in middle Tennessee. The Kiwanis Club of Nashville named him Nashvillian of the Year in 1998, and he served as national chairman of the football Bowl Association for 2007 and 2008; he continues to serve on its Executive Committee. In 2003, the Nashville Sports Council was named the National Sports Commission of the Year by the membership of the National Association of Sports Commissions. Ramsey has also had positions with USA Gymnastics, the River Wilderness Country Club in Bradenton, FL, and the Washington Bullets of the NBA.

Rick Turner is a senior construction executive with The Rogers Group in Gallatin, the culmination of a 30-year career there with increasing leadership assignments. He earned a B.S. in Business Administration from Western Kentucky University, graduating Magna Cum Laude. He has held a number of leadership positions with the Tennessee Road Builders Association, a professional organization, and has been a board member of Forward Sumner Economic Development for more than ten years.

* * * more * * *

PAGE FOUR: CapStar Bank Welcomes Sumner County Advisory Board

CapStar Bank opened on July 14, 2008. As of the end of September, 2012, its total assets were valued at $931 million. CapStar's headquarters are in downtown Nashville at 201 Fourth Avenue, Suite 900, with branches at 5500 Maryland Way in Brentwood; 2321 Crestmoor Road in Green Hills; 101 Springhouse Court, Hendersonville; and 885 Greenlea Blvd, Gallatin. For more information about CapStar Bank, please visit www.CapStarBank.com.

#

CapStar Bank: We're listening.